Times Academy Partners with University of New England

Times Academy is proud to announce a new pathway partnership from most of our AQF qualifications into UNE for further education. It is an exciting announcement for us as students from Times Academy can now use their studies to gain credit towards a degree at UNE.

This agreement also covers offshore package offers and CoEs. Students can come on a package visa to study for Diplomas and Advanced Diplomas which will lead to sought after degrees and programs the world over. Students who study Community Services or Leadership & Management can get advanced standing for their studies at UNE.

The University of New England in Armidale, Australia is a global leader in research and academic innovation. Their international students interact closely with teaching staff and enjoy being a part of a close-knit community. UNE's primary goal is to give students the knowledge and skills needed to make a difference in the world. Yet, while the focus is on the future, UNE is also proud of its heritage. As one of Australia's oldest universities, you can trust UNE to provide a high-quality learning experience. UNE has campuses in Armidale and Parramatta, NSW with studies and degrees in demand the world over.
